

NEGRO SUPREMACY, THE RADICAL PROGRAMME.

areable. They will the negro learn that the interest of the white man is his interest; that if he would prosper he must adopt some other calling than politics and that he can make a better living and a better character by honest labor than by any change of condition likely to result from the passage of the Civil Rights bill. Until he has learned to fight with all the rights which the laws give to the whites, he can not prosper, and instead of being a prosperous and respected citizen, he will be the ragged slave of some thievish Radical.

The fact that two hundred white men are besieged by seven hundred negroes, in Austin, Miss., is the strongest argument yet used in favor of a white man's party. The two hundred have so far, successfully resisted the seven hundred, and reinforcements are going to the assistance of both parties it is not improbable that some thing decisive will soon transpire and be made to make more, that due attention be paid to the detestable whites who lead the negroes into acts of violence and then seek places of safety.

the work of Messrs. Ketcham and Denigson. The other commissioner, Mr. Blaw, was absent, and is not responsible for what was done.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The Secretary of the Treasury is preparing a bill to amend the act of July 1, 1862, which authorized the government to take control of the railroads embraced in the Act of last June, requiring the payment of five per cent. of the net earnings of the companies to the government, imposed by the act of July 1, 1862. If the demand is not complied with within sixty days, the Secretary will notify the Attorney-General, who will institute legal proceedings against the road for the delinquent taxes.

Adjutant-General Baker, of Iowa, writes to Commissioner Burdett of the General Land Office, representing that there is great suffering among homestead settlers in the Northwestern counties of the State, owing to the visitation of grasshoppers.

It is not in mortals to command success, but we will do more. Sempronius will deserve it.—Addison.

age generally; Consumption, Epilepsy, Rheumatism, and other diseases, and the treatment of them, by ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M.D., author of the "Green Book," &c. &c. The well-known author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from the most recent and accurate sources of Self-Abuse may be effectually cured without medicine, and, by the use of the "Green Book," instruments, rings, or cordials; pointing out the various errors and delusions usual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, is misled, and rendered incurable, and radically cured.

As this Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.
